Chapter 1 by Supercomicbookgirl

Rain covers the dark forest roads, causing the tires to slip slightly. I put out the cigarette I've held in my hand to release the stress, I turn the radio up to the max, and slide deeper into my chair. The rain makes me unable to see through the windshield and I feel the car starting to sway. Before I know it, I've lost all control, and the car lands nose first into a tree...
